Ethan was a 2022 House Captain for Stynes who was highly reliable, thoughtful and conscientious within his role. He attended all scheduled meetings, making valuable contributions and getting involved in all capacities as a true, enthusiastic team player. Ethan always volunteered to complete tasks and aimed to assist his team in the best way possible. Ethan has been a fabulous asset to the Student Representative Council, working solidly and collaboratively alongside his leaders, fellow captains and teachers.

On behalf of Rowville Lions Club

The Rowville Lions Club Awards are presented to two Year 10 students, one from each campus for overall contribution to the school environment.

Emilija Dakic

Emilija is an outstanding student who demonstrates the core values of RSC in and around the school. Emilija regularly takes initiative leading and engaging others in class activities during Learning Mentor, and consistently goes above and beyond in her efforts in representing the school both on the basketball court and in the wider Rowville community. Emilija is a shining example to her peers in both her attitude to her schoolwork and her interactions with classmates and teachers alike. She is a very worthy recipient of the Lions Club award.

Natalie Ly

Natalie has been a Walton House &DSWDLQ DQG KHOG VSHFL“F U within the SRC, relating to being an effective communicator. She has also been actively involved in various working parties and works hard to motivate those around her. Natalie is a role model to those around her, encouraging them to take risks in their learning and their roles in the SRC.

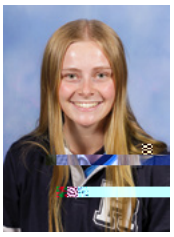
Over the past four years at Rowville Secondary College Natalie has been an excellent role model to her peers and other students in the college by upholding the college values, whilst balancing her time and concentrating on her academic studies. She is an incredibly dedicated and hardworking student who always gives her best effort in all the endeavours she undertakes. She is currently a House Captain and an integral member of the SRC where she has modelled excellent communication skills. Within her leadership role, Natalie regularly shows initiative and hard work which is driven by a desire to serve the College community.



Tyler is a well-respected member of the Rowville Secondary College Community. Tyler demonstrates a strong work ethic always maintaining focus within the classroom and prioritising time outside of the classroom to study ensuring she is well prepared for assessments.

Tyler is a great role model for younger students and should be proud of the contributions she has made to Rowville Secondary College.

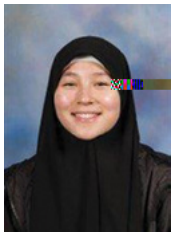
Jorja is an incredibly positive student and has an amazing mindset towards STEM and STEM learning. She participates well in class and strives to do her best at all times. With a natural inclination to mathematics and science learning, Jorja was an integral part of the First Robotics Team competition in 2022. Jorja attended more lunchtime sessions than anyone, leading the building and design of our robot. Her enthusiasm and productivity meant that in a short time we built and tested our robot. With her leadership we were able to compete in the Melbourne out of season competition and finished 13 from 16 teams, which was a great result for a new team. Well done Jorja.

Shiyao Han

Han is a highly motivated student, and as a result a very high achieving one. A student with a high work ethic, he is also polite, quiet and unassuming. As a selfless individual he is always willing to find time to help his fellow students with a difficult problem or demonstrate a new approach to solve a problem. The work he completes is exceptional. He is elite in mathematics and physics, and he not only completes all set tasks but, he seeks extra work to hone his skills. He is quick to offer a solution in class, and give answers. His approach to solving problems is often unique, and he can understand a problem from several different perspectives. Well done Han.

On behalf of Glenn Fankhauser, RSC Principal from 1998 - 2016

The Glenn Fankhauser Integrity Award recognises students who clearly demonstrate our school values of Respect, Responsibility, Community and Excellence. They are leaders within our community, are resourceful, problem solve and work in teams to improve school culture.



Halima and Neave are two of the 2022 School Captains. Both students are extraordinary. They demonstrate the College values every day, including mentoring students, working with them to overcome many different issues. Halima and Neave have excelled in their studies in 2022, displaying an ability to problem solve issues for students and the Community throughout the year. Both students have played an integral part in the School Captain team being a voice for the students in many ways.

Thomas Vucic

Mullum VET Cluster Merit Award 2022 Certificate II in Electrotechnology with Swinburne. Thomas has approached this year with enthusiasm, and this has shown in the quality of work he has completed. Thomas has displayed great skills in his ability to work independently and manage his time. Throughout this year, Thomas has demonstrated the necessary skills that will enable him to be a successful apprentice.

Charli Wing

Mullum VET Cluster Excellence Award for her work and participation in her VETDSS course in Certificate II Building and Construction (Carpentry) with St Joseph's College. Charli is to be congratulated on her achievements to date. Charli always uses her class time productively which has allowed her to consistently produce high quality coursework. Charli's work ethic has been excellent, and she has been an outstanding role model for her fellow peers. We congratulate Charli on securing a full-time Carpentry apprenticeship.

Hannah Rachelski

Mullum VET Cluster Merit Award 2022 Cert II in Early Childhood Education and Care with Box Hill Institute. Hannah has demonstrated an excellent work ethic throughout the year. Hannah's positive and mature approach to her course is admirable. She consistently shows enthusiasm and works extremely well when undertaking group activities or class discussion. Hannah's ability to communicate effectively and her dedicated work ethic will be invaluable for her career in Early Childhood Education.

Jessica Stephenson

Mullum VET Cluster Merit award 2022 Cert II in Animal Studies Fast Track at Box Hill TAFE. Jessica has completed the full Certificate II in Animal Studies in one year as part of Box Hill's Fast Track program. This is a great achievement and in doing this she has displayed great dedication to her chosen pathway. She has managed her time effectively in class and has consistently shown initiative and persistence to complete tasks. She is well on her way to achieving her goals to work in this industry.

Benjamin Leehane

Mullum VET Cluster Excellence Award for his work and participation in her VETDSS course in Certificate II Building and Construction (Carpentry) with St Joseph's College. Ben is to be congratulated on his achievements to date. His class time has been used productively on every occasion which has allowed him to produce high quality work. He has completed all units to the highest standard through his ability to be on time, meet deadlines and manage his class time effectively.

Mullum VET Cluster Excellence Award for her work and participation in her VETDSS course in Certificate III in Acting (Screen). Eirini has developed a great awareness and appreciation of the Australian Film and Television Industry. Her preparedness for class is outstanding and this is an excellent skill to have, particularly with in the Film and Television industry. Her enthusiasm and passion for her craft shines through and this is shown in her dedicated approach to her work and performance.

Elmarie De Beer

Mullum VET Cluster Excellence Award for her work and participation in her VETDSS course in Certificate III in Acting (Screen). Elmarie has had a successful year demonstrating her knowledge and skills of the Australian Film and Television Industry. Elmarie is consistently prepared for class and has been able to engage in deep critiques of her own filming exercise. This has allowed her to continue to develop her skills. We congratulate Elmarie on her work with her Harley Quinn monologue, which left the panel in awe.
